Classes come and classes go, but school spirit stays on! Twenty-five years, a quarter of a century, is a long time in an individual's life and calls for an appropriate observance of the silver anniversary. Though twenty-five years may not represent such a long span in the life of an institution, it is still worthy of recognition, or so the staff of your Coronol thinks. Therefore we have chosen for the 1948 yearbook theme, the celebration of the Corona Senior High School's first twenty-five years on the West Sixth Street Campus.

The staff believes that the High School Annual should portray all elements of school life, should record school traditions and spirit, should interpret the school to the public, and should serve as a memory book. We tried to bring to you in the best form possible a picture of school life at Coronol High School for the year of 1947-1948, with a few comparisons to the spirit of the school twenty-five years ago, when the first class, the Class of 1924, graduated from this campus.

MEMORIES

DEDICATION

There are certain people to whom we are always indebted and to whom we are grateful. These people are invariably those who went before us, paving the way for us by their deeds and accomplishments.

Nations are founded by those who "go before", leaving for those to come, traditions and standards by which to live. Sometimes these people are forgotten—their lives fade into the past.

But, we of Corona Senior High have not forgotten. We have not forgotten those who founded the first traditions of our school, starting it on its way.

Traditions and "first impressions" are sometimes carelessly made. But, they are the beginning of a lasting impression which lives on with the school.

To the class of 1924, who were the first to graduate from our school twenty-five years ago, we dedicate this Coronal in hopes that by doing so, we may express to them our thanks for helping to make our school a school of which to be proud. May we follow their well established ways?

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Throughout the past twenty-five years the board of trustees has been composed of some of our leading citizens who have proven to us in many instances that they have continually placed the welfare of the students foremost in their thoughts and actions. Twenty-five years ago they were: Mrs. L. L. Andrews, still living in Corono; Mr. Charles M. Scoville, deceased; and Mr. Horry M. Moy, deceased.

In 1947-48, they were (in the order in which they are seated above): Mr. H. P. Brownfield, Mr. Jesse E. Lillibridge (clerk), Mr. R. M. C. Fullenwider (president), Mr. Frank E. Bishop, Mr. Stanley W. Jacobs, and Mr. J. H. Mocon.

The board's newest important achievement was the unification of the school district, which was to become effective July 1, 1948.

SUPERINTENDENT

"Congratulations to the Class of 1948—the twenty-fifth class to be graduated from Corona Senior High School's present campus. May you as C. H. S. alumni assume worthy, useful places in our American democracy wherever you live. To the degree that you and succeeding classes assume this responsibility will the purposes of this institution be fulfilled."

FRANK E. BISHOP

BUSINESS MANAGER

"On this twenty-fifth anniversary of Corona Senior High School, it is fitting that we review the past in order to face the future more intelligently. May this center of learning serve the community even better in the years ahead."

S. E. WALDRUP

PRINCIPAL

"Anniversaries are a significant experience in the life of men—and on the occasion of this particular one—tribute may well be paid to the men and women whose loyalty, wisdom and enthusiasm made our present building possible.

For the past quarter of a century it has served well the educational needs of Corona young men and women. Within its walls, victories have been won and traditions made.

May it continue to stand and serve as a symbol of knowledge, endeavor and achievement in the years to come—so those who leave its halls may successfully take their places in the world—and thus reflect honor upon the institution which is their alma mater."

C. FINIS FRAZIER

DIRECTOR OF CHILD WELFARE

"One of my greatest satisfactions throughout my eight years as Director of Child Welfare for the Corona City Schools has been that of watching you students grow up to find your places in the world."

SCHOOL WAS SCHOOL

"Kids were kids" even twenty-five years ago. If you had walked into a classroom then, everything would have been about the same as it is now. You always find the jokers, the shy guys, the "A" students, the one that almost flunked kindergarten, and the well-known "apple-polisher".

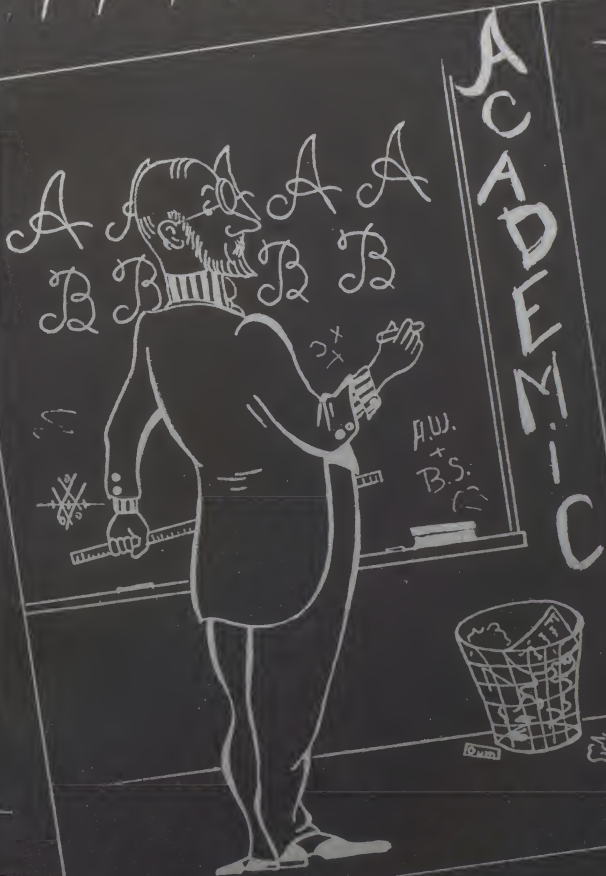

Classes are larger now and there is more variety in the classes offered. It wasn't too long ago that such things as glee club and instrumental music classes weren't part of the school day. Those who wanted to take part in them had to meet on Saturdays or before school in the mornings.

Wardship and home ec were started down in grade school in the fourth or fifth grade, whereas they are now started in the eighth grade.

Maybe the clothes were different? Last year we could have said "yes", but not now! The girls wore skirts and sweaters or dresses. Of course there have been minor changes in the styles, but for the most part it was just skirts and sweaters. The hem line was about the same—several inches below the knee. The boys wore about the same thing—jeans or levis and a shirt.

Perhaps teachers had a soft spot in their hearts for the football players who didn't do too much work, and still got passing grades. Mr. Albert Farmer decided that he would only do as much work as they did, but he didn't get away with it. He flunked English!

"Oh things were different when you were in school," is something students often say to their parents; but really, maybe things weren't so different after all!

Quick Trip Through Today's World

Under the able leadership of Mr. Addison, Mr. Keers, Miss Paradis, and Mr. Taylor the history department helped students understand the world in which they live. The aim was that they might adjust themselves to it successfully and happily and that they might contribute intelligently to its betterment.

Special stress was placed on current affairs and an abundance of reports, films, discussions and panels constantly brought our nation's postwar problems to the attention of the students. Magazines and papers such as Time, Life, and Our Times were used extensively in this program. Mr. Addison gave an excellent reason for this program when he stated, "I hope that as we look back into our nation's past and forward to its future the students will be proud that they are Americans."

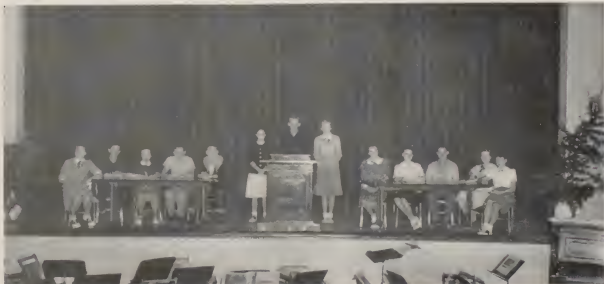

With Shake- speare, Adverbs & the Muses

"Hyatt's Hat Heaven" was a hilarious theme written in the senior English class taught by Mrs. Hyatt. In their more serious moments, these seniors devoted a great deal of time to serious English literature and to the preparation for the English examinations they would take before entering college.

The junior English classes under Miss Peterson studied grammar and English literature with extra credit given for outside reading.

The dramatics class, also taught by Miss Peterson, studied different types of drama, Shakespeare's life, and one of his plays. They also took part in the Lemonville and Christmas plays.

Sophomore English classes instructed by Mr. Ritter and Miss Escalante, in addition to the required grammar, wrote "Idea Books" which took original thinking. Also they gave oral book reviews on books read outside of class. One of the most interesting discussions of the classes was whether or not your life is prearranged by fate, or if your own thoughts and actions can determine the events in your life.

They Found X

During his high school career many a student survives the rigors of the various mathematics courses such as algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, advanced algebra and trigonometry. All are designed to help the student meet his college mathematics requirements or prepare him for an occupation involving further study of the subject. Even if he does not remember that the line of centers of two intersecting circles bisects their common chord at right angles, he has usually learned to work with his mind in organizing his thinking and developing an analytical approach to his problems.

In the Ivory Lab

If you could manage to endure those poisonous odors from the lab and sneak quietly past the creepy little crawling things that are the passion of every bug bisector, I mean biologist you might stroll into the science department some day to see what's up. You would probably find some students preparing for more advanced work in the field, and also many more who are seeing, perhaps for the first time, the complexities of this marvelous world of nature in which we live.

Art Department

The Art Department, headed by Miss Heoly, has accomplished very many interesting and useful things this past year. Art is a very fascinating subject, but the majority of high school students know little about it.

The Art classes are not only fun, but very worth-while. During this school year, the students have painted portraits and have done free hand drawings and cartoons. Also some of the pupils have stenciled in aprons and bandanas, and have tooled many articles of leather goods.

An art class is very valuable to any school, and we should be proud of the grand job ours has done this year.

Do-re-mi

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Richard A. Becker, did outstanding work. Its members played at assemblies and gave some public concerts. The band, also directed by Mr. Becker, played at football games and basketball games. In January the long awaited uniforms arrived which will really give the games more spirit.

The C.H.S. Glee Club, directed by Mr. J. Lorin Farmer, did very fine work. Its members sang at our own assemblies, exchange assemblies, and at many outside clubs, but we missed them at the Christmas program because of Mr. Farmer's illness.

We should be proud of the splendid job our Music Department did this year.

Blackbirds Baked in a Pie

The Home Economics Department offers some of the most beneficial courses for high school students. In these classes they learn not only the fundamentals of cooking and sewing, but the basic foundations of home-making. Janie will always remember what she learned about the basic "7". Mary will never forget the first white sauce she made. Why students take the Home-Economics courses is simple. They learn home-management and are better equipped to take care of their own home.

And Your 60 Word Pin ??

The Commercial Department gives a bird's eye view of the business world. It teaches specific skills which will aid in personal life as well as in such vocational skills as typing, writing shorthand, keeping records and understanding various business forms.

One of the outward signs of success in the department is the earning of awards such as the typing pin and the shorthand certificate for meeting certain standards of speed and accuracy. This year these typing awards were earned two weeks earlier than in the previous year. The advanced commercial students were taken on a field trip to the Leman Exchange Business Offices.

Language Department

Three languages are taught at Corona High School: French, Latin, and Spanish.

The second year French class taught by Mrs. Hyatt read and translated letters and newspapers as well as the required translation and grammar. One of the highlights of the year was the presentation of a short skit at the language assembly, written and spoken in French.

The second year Latin class also instructed by Mrs. Hyatt studied the "Adventures of Aeneas" the first semester and "Caesar's Account of the Gallic Wars" during the second semester. Another interesting activity was the preparing and giving of reports on famous Roman leaders.

The first and second year Spanish classes were taught this year by Miss Escalante. The main objective of the classes is to be able to speak, write and understand the Spanish language. A minimum of grammar is required. This section of the department also wrote and put on a Spanish skit for the language assembly. It included songs, dances, and a piano solo.

Shop

Work in machine shop is divided into three major fields—machine work, welding, and foundry practice. Students are encouraged to practice in all three fields, but if their interests are definitely in one particular field they are not required to work in all three.

In general students choose their own projects. Projects in machine work range from screwdrivers, punches, and hammers through ornamental turnings on lumps and vases to complicated projects like steam engines and wood lathes.

Welding is carried on with both the oxy-acetylene and electric processes. It is largely practiced, though quite a volume of repair work on cars, scooters, and heavier equipment flows through the shop.

Foundry work is limited mainly to ornamental castings in aluminum with some brass and bronze poured occasionally.

Work in woodshop is adapted to first, second and third year students. During the first year the boys learn the fundamentals of woodworking and the use and care of the tools. After the fundamentals have been learned, the boys learn to make a lumber bill and the how to make a bill of material for their projects. The projects are usually made in second and third years including articles of furniture such as benches, cabinets, and tables, assortments of book shelves and corner shelves.

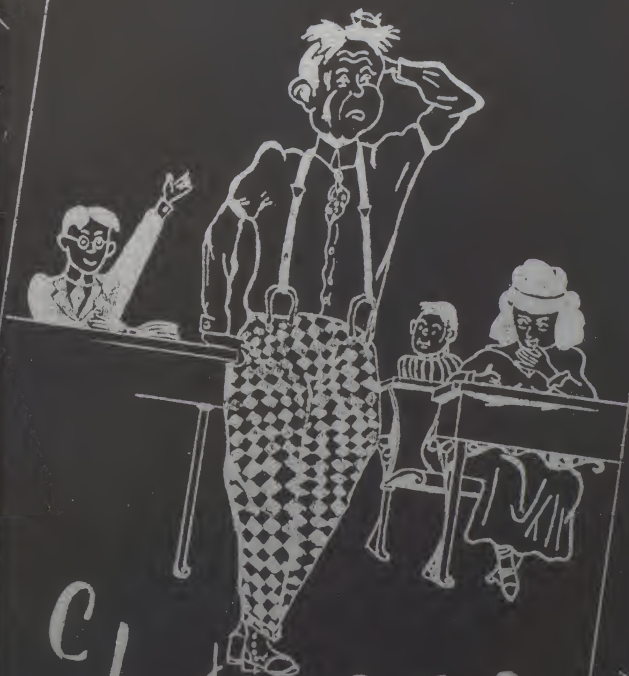

Seniors of 25 Commencements Ago were the First to Graduate in Our High School Auditorium

Do you ever wonder what has happened to your old classmates? Or—when you're in a reminiscing mood—do you ever remember, with that feeling that you're surely getting old, the things you did when you were in high school? The class that was graduated from Corona High in 1924 did quite a bit of "hashing over" some of the events of their school days at a get-to-gether in front of the high school main building last month. And, indeed, they have a record to be proud of.

Thirty-four people graduated from senior high school on June 12, 1924: they were: Thelma Lillian Baldwin, Hazel J. Barger, Robert A. Brunson, Myrtle Beatrice Buzan, Margaret Bywater, Frances Cane, Edmund Clark, Ethel Beth Crandell, Albert E. Farmer, Robert Cedric Fink, Richard Fitch, Leonard Frazier, Emma Ruth Gaddie, Mattie Ellen Garner, Katherine Elise Gersbach, India Gould, Jennie Lou Graham, Elsie Benjamina Hansen, Franklin Johnson, David Kelley, Thyra

Ketchum, Arthur Lillibridge, Lynn Lillibridge, Eleanor Louise Longworth, Hilbert Marzinke, Wilbert Miller, Liberty Pate, Geirgie Sandifer, Dorothy Slaughter, Marguerite E. Swoverland, Lola Thompson, Henry Brewster Tuthill, William Lee Wallace, and Eleanor Mary Wilder.

Of these 34 graduates, there are 11 who still reside in Corona. You probably know Marguerite Swoverland, who is now Mrs. Lillibridge and a teacher at Jefferson; R. A. Brunson, who is now a veterinarian; Margaret Bywater, who is now Mrs. David Kelley; Albert Farmer, who is now a landscaper; Emma Ruth Gaddie, who is now Mrs. Frank Bethurum; David Kelley, who is now a grove owner; Lynn Lillibridge, who is now a ranch owner; Hilbert Marzinke, who works for the Citizen's Bank; Franklin Johnson, who is an orange grower; Geirgie Sandifer, who is now Mrs. J. S. Lowery, wife of the Chief of Police; and Henry Tuthill, who is employed with the Shell Oil Company.

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Under the leadership of Tom Robertson, the senior class president, the class of '48 made its way through its final year of school. Many trials and errors blocked their path, but they came through victorious. In their last year of high school, they chose very able leaders to settle all the problems that were to come up. Tom Robertson showed himself ready and able to lead in every emergency. Carol Smith, vice-president, in her pleasant manner, did much to make this year a success. Arlene Reading, secretary, kept a record of all senior class meetings and thereby showed her ability and desire to make the class of '48 a memorable one. Senior class treasurer, Alvin Olson, showed that he was well-suited for his position by taking care of all the money matters that came up through the year. These four, in their ability, personality, and wish to do right, made the class respect and honor them; and in years to come they will still be remembered for their continuous service to the school.

Class yell leaders were Ardeth Noble and Nelda Nolan.

Senior class representatives were Doug Garton, Florencio Ortiz, Emily Delgadillo, and Dick Allen. Bud Smith was chosen senior representative to the Student Council.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 11, 1945, the class of "48" entered high school as eager sophomores. Ardeth Ann Noble was elected president and was assisted by Morell McGregor as vice-president; Morgoret Flores, secretary; and Imogene Horris, treasurer. During the year they sponsored "Pitchers' Paradise" a booth at Lemonville; they participated in the Christmas skit, "Foot Bolls and Powder Puffs"; they presented an assembly; and they decorated for the baccaloureate service according to custom.

During the junior year "Big, little Mac McGregor" headed the class as president. The juniors put on a fine carnival dance for Lemonville, a comical assembly take-off was given on comic strip characters, and that hair-raising mystery play called "Mystery in the Library" was a big hit. On May 17, the annual Junior-Senior prom was held with "The Beach" as the theme at the American Legion Hall.

Finally, it's the big year. "Seniors leave first" was the big privilege long awaited by all of these "brainy seniors" since they first came to senior high school. A fine assembly was given in December. Senior Ditch Day was enjoyed by all in May; the Seniors especially enjoyed those envious looks given them by the sophomores and juniors. Finally it was good-bye to the old Alma Mater—and to tell the truth they hated to leave.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Class of '49 provided new reasons to believe that juniors are very active members in all school activities and affairs.

Members of this class made their first step toward raising money for the Prom by selling food at the local football games. Then came the sea-themed Lemonville Dance sponsored by "The Forty-niners" with many Juniors taking an active part in the Lemonville plays.

Early in October these middle-classmen proudly displayed their attractive class rings, but still eagerly awaited spring when they paraded their blue senior class sweaters.

The traditional Junior Play was presented in March, leaving the Junior-Senior Prom to top the social year of the upper classmen.

The successful junior year is largely attributable to the president. Bob Morrell, who was every ready to uphold his class. "Johnny" Shannon, serving as vice-president, worked faithfully, as did Barbara Sandidge, secretary. With Arlen Wheeler and David Holton as co-financial chairmen, "The Forty-niners" managed to make ends meet.

Junior representatives (chosen by U. S. History classes) who were definitely a part of this active teamwork were: Betty Turner, Mary Hecser, Bob Baker, Marilyn Galbraith, and Bob Allen. Faculty sponsors were Mrs. Griswold, Mr. Keers, Mr. Davies, Mr. Brooks, Mrs. Arnold, Miss Chapman, Mr. Taylor, and Miss Peterson.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

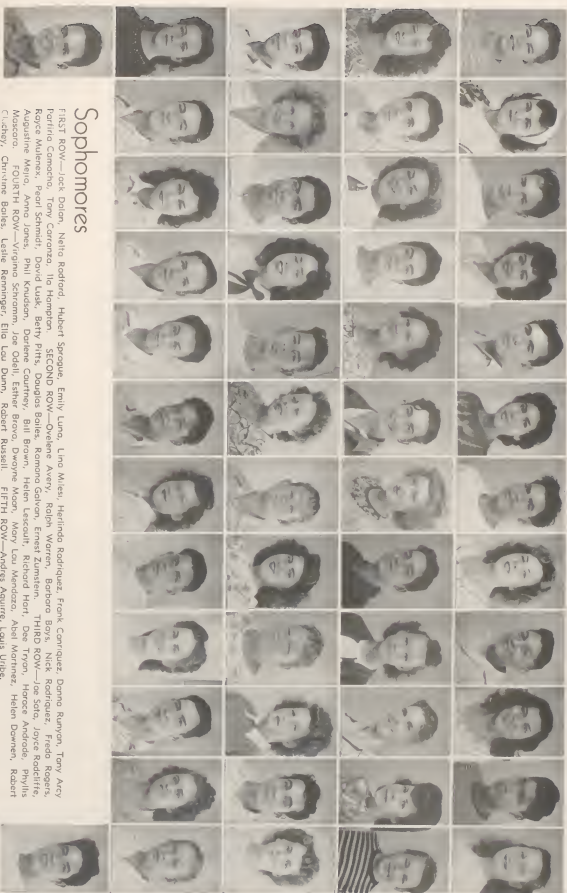

Another sophomore class has come to C.H.S. but this is not the ordinary class—it's one of ambition, ingenuity, teamwork, and has a great school spirit.

Some of the many activities the class presented to the student body were the sophomore assembly, a talent show and a panel by one of the English classes. A few sophomores were in the Lemonville Plays.

The class officers were Bill Robertson, president, an all-around personality with good sportsmanship and modesty "to boot"; John Labrum, vice-president, a conscientious worker and a lover of horses; Rose Abercrombie, treasurer, good natured and lovable girl; Jackie Stewart, secretary, an all-around girl in sports and studies; Barbara Jean and Imogene Schockley, yell leaders, identical twins who can almost always be seen together wearing the same type of clothes.

Barbara Bays and Jimmie Ragsdale excelled in representing the class in the Student Council.

Credit is also due to the class advisors, Miss Paradis and Miss Escalante who have helped the class.

Sophomores

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more undernourished. The most important is the rapid increase in the world's population. The world population is now over 6 billion and is projected to reach 9 billion by the year 2050 (UNEP 1992).

Another reason is the increasing demand for food. As the world's population grows, the demand for food increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the food supply is limited.

A third reason is the increasing demand for land. As the world's population grows, the demand for land increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the land is being used for agriculture.

A fourth reason is the increasing demand for water. As the world's population grows, the demand for water increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the water supply is limited.

A fifth reason is the increasing demand for energy. As the world's population grows, the demand for energy increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the energy supply is limited.

A sixth reason is the increasing demand for food. As the world's population grows, the demand for food increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the food supply is limited.

A seventh reason is the increasing demand for land. As the world's population grows, the demand for land increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the land is being used for agriculture.

An eighth reason is the increasing demand for water. As the world's population grows, the demand for water increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the water supply is limited.

A ninth reason is the increasing demand for energy. As the world's population grows, the demand for energy increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the energy supply is limited.

A tenth reason is the increasing demand for food. As the world's population grows, the demand for food increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the food supply is limited.

A eleventh reason is the increasing demand for land. As the world's population grows, the demand for land increases. This is especially true in the developing countries, where the population is growing rapidly and the land is being used for agriculture.

THE SERVICE CLUB

The need of a school Service Club was realized by a few members of the sixth period art class, who reorganized the club, allowing any person interested to join. This group of about fifteen then chose Bernice Bradley and Allyce Wingo as co-chairmen of their club.

Throughout the year this helpful organization managed to make the appearance of C. H. S. more inviting by placing floral arrangements in the hall and office, and by spending a great deal of time on very effective hall decorations for Halloween and Christmas.

Miss Healy, art teacher and club sponsor, directed the girls in their effort toward making our school more attractive.

GIRL'S LEAGUE

Girl's League, an organization composed of all high school girls, has been working to promote a spirit of friendship and cooperation among its members. Sponsored by Mrs. Bishop, Miss Escalante, and Mrs. Swanson and directed by President Ardeth Noble, Vice President Scharli Lyon, Secretary Arlene Wheeler, and Treasurer Connie Luna—Girl's League has given every girl the opportunity to display her own talents and enjoy the talents of others, and has presented to her many educational programs designed to help her lead a happier, more useful life.

The highlight of the year's activities was Hi Jinx at which Ardeth Noble was crowned Queen of Hi Jinx according to the choice of the girls. The six girls on the Queen's court were Kathleen Bishop, Emily Delgadillo, Charmayne Leeson, Marion Lyon, Margie Riley and Carol Smith.

Among the other activities of the year were the picnic on Big and Little Sister Day, welfare work for the Children's Home Society, the Christmas party, and the Sadie Hawkin's dance.

THE SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club "Los Panteras" was active this year. Its purpose was to further interest and study in anything Spanish by giving an opportunity to its members to hear or speak the language outside of class.

The club met the first Wednesday of every month. The entertainment, after the business session, was furnished by one of the three Spanish classes. By the end of the year, "Los Panteras" had learned Spanish songs and had practiced in giving skits in Spanish.

Most of the members were proud to wear the Spanish Club pin, which is very attractive.

The officers of the club are: Jack Kroonen, president; Mary Alyce Hecser, vice-president; Rita Fuller, secretary; and Clarcy Ann McCord, treasurer.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is an organization made up only of Latin students. It was the newest club at C. H. S., since it was only begun in 1947. In the short time it had, it became well organized. This club was organized under the direction of Mrs. Hyatt.

As a final activity, the Latin Club held a Roman banquet May 8 at the home of Esther Rieve.

First semester officers were: Grace Taylor, president; Hilda Childress, vice-president; Esther Rieve, secretary; Dick Sparkman, treasurer.

Second Semester officers were: Dick Sparkman, president; Adrian Novak, vice president; Lucille Smith, secretary; and Esther Rieve, treasurer.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Corona High School's Lettermen's Club led by "Bud" Smith, president, has done much to increase the school spirit this year. Lettermen have advocated good sportsmanship in school work as well as in sports.

The big event of the year was their Annual Lettermen's Club Dance at the American Legion Hall. They also sold hot dogs, candy, and pop at some of their games.

Their other officers were: Wayland Nelson, vice-president; David Holton, secretary; and Doug Garton, treasurer.

Lettermen's Club

Throughout the past year, the Lettermen have sponsored: a high school-alumni dance in the gymnasium with the Teen Age Orchestra; an assembly for the purpose of initiating the new members; the annual Varsity-Faculty basketball game, which they publicized with a parade; and their most recent accomplishment was a magician show given in the high school auditorium for the purpose of raising money to buy the annual Lettermen's gift to present to C. H. S. However, the highlight of this year's football season came when Frank Nugent was awarded the trophy for being the "Most Valuable Player" at the Football Banquet sponsored by the Lions Club.

"B"

Lettermen Club

This year for the first time in the history of Corona High School's athletic activities, the boys organized a "B" Lettermen's Club, under the supervision of Wayne Taylor, prominent coach and teacher at the high school.

Officers of the club were: President, Harvey Simpson; Vice-President, Morell McGregor; Secretary, Jack Kroonen; Treasurer, Bob Morrel; and Publicity Chairman, Mike Lugo and Bill Robertson.

When the Coronal went to press the club had not yet been notified by Tri-County Officials as to what kind of sweaters they will be allowed to wear.

The boys made plans to make every contribution to the school they can and promoted better school sportsmanship.

The "B" Lettermen very willingly cooperated with the Varsity Lettermen, helping out Varsity Lettermen with their Magicians Show and Varsity-Faculty game. By helping promote these activities, the Lettermen have been trying to build up club finances, in order that they might keep their club going.

Favorite hang-out of "B" Lettermen—as Activity pictures show—was "Taylor's Tavern."

After school on Mondays and Wednesdays, sport-minded girls used up their excess energy—when they had any left by then—in an hour of after-school sports.

The year was started off with a fast-moving season of basket-ball. There was a large turn-out of enthusiastic sophomores composing two teams with competing junior and senior teams. The season was ended with the usual basketball playday at Citrus.

Following basketball came a long but exciting season of speedball. Corona girls were privileged to be the hostesses at the annual speedball playday, which was the first given by Corona in several years. Corona made a good showing in competing with the five other schools in the league.

A rough and memorable season in hockey followed. It was memorable because each girl at one time or another went home with a bruise here or there.

With the warm days of spring came softball, a sport to which all the girls looked forward. In this game several outstanding players were developed.

Tennis was enjoyed throughout the year, the finals being played in April.

Hi - Tri

Under the leadership of Carol Smith, president, and Miss Paradis, sponsor, the Hi-Tri has just completed a very successful year.

The Hi-Tri began the year's activities by having a wiener bake to help the new members get acquainted with the old. They continued to have supper meetings the last meeting of every month.

A Hallowe'en dance was one of the first dances that was held, which took the place of the regular Spring Formal. Another important event was the snow party, held at Jo Ann Roos's cabin at Lake Arrowhead.

But don't get the idea that this year was all play and no work. At Christmas and Thanksgiving, the Hi-Tri supplied food and clothing for some of the needy families of Corona. At the school sponsored Hallowe'en dance the girls sold hot dogs.

Ten Corona Girls attended the annual Y-Teen midwinter conference at Redlands University and brought back many interesting ideas.

Members of the cabinet were: Charmayne Leeson, vice-president; Virginio Jewell, Mary Herzer, Clorcy Ann McCord, Louise Fedder, Martha Kirkpatrick, Scharli Lyon, Jo Ann Roos, Rose Abercrombie, Marilyn Galbraith, Nelda Nolan, and Kathleen Bishop.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y, an organization affiliated to the Young Men's Christian Association, has done much to build better citizens and teach the high school students the "good road".

Tom Robertson, president, led the Hi-Y in a successful year of work and fun. The club had business meetings, programs with guest speakers, "Parents' Night", a weiner bake, swimming, and roller skating as some of its activities.

The Hi-Y believes and practices Clean Living, Clean Sports, Clean Speech, and Clean Scholarship.

Officers serving with President Tom Robertson were Doug Garton, vice-president; Bob Morrell, secretary; and Charles Wroot, treasurer. The Hi-Y also had live, functioning committees with chairmen as follows: Dick Garton, sports; Paul Dolan, social; Doug Garton, program; Marrell McGregor, membership; Myron Joseph, service; Donald Root, publicity; and Charles Wroot, finance. Faculty sponsors were Mr. Addison, Mr. Becker, and Mr. Keers.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

One organization in our school which we hear very little about is the Scholarship Society, composed of 24 members and sponsored by Mrs. Hyott. Officers are David Holton, President; Mildred Reeb, Vice-President; Bobbie Brandon, Secretary-Treasurer. Requirements for membership in this organization are 10 points based on semester grades and extra-curricular activities. This society is the only organization formed for the purpose of recognizing and encouraging those students who have excelled scholastically.

Members of the Scholarship Society are Jimmie Husted, Faith Rispalje, Joyce Siddens, Ethel Dillon, Howard Whitney, Barbara Downs, Barbara Bays, Kay Seebold, Bill Zidbeck, John Lobrum, Bill Robertson, David Holton, Virginia Jewell, Myron Joseph, Rita Fuller, Jeanne Dupuis, Scharli Lyon, Joan Kozmer, Mildred Reeb, Marion Lane, Tom Robertson, Ardeth Mow, Loretta Olson, Beverly Burmon, and Dollie Kilemm.

Life members are Beverly Burman, Tom Robertson, Ardeth Maw, Poul Dolon, Ethel Dillon, Mildred Reeb, and Joyce Siddens.

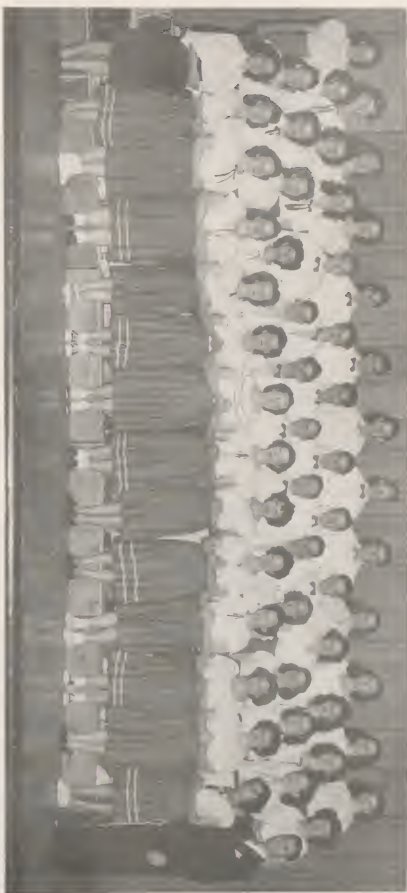

The Hi Club

Good recreation was the purpose of the Hi Club. Members met on Thursday and Saturday nights and enjoyed ping-pong, dancing, movies, cards, pool, and food.

Many are the happy school memories associated with Hi Club nights.

Officers were: Robert Cleveland, president; Pud Allen, vice-president; Jackie Stewart, secretary; Jean Attebery, treasurer; and Mr. Taylor, sponsor.

GLEE CLUB

This year, one of the largest glee clubs in the history of Corona High School made a commendable record in achieving its two primary aims—the development of fine voices and service to the community. Mr. J. Lorin Farmer, director, states that in quantity and quality of music-making his club this year ranked favorably with any he has directed.

Beside appearing in such school programs as the Christmas concert and Thanksgiving service, the glee club made many appearances before community clubs. Vocal students provided a large portion of the entertainment in our class assemblies and represented our school in exchange assemblies and the Tri-County Festival. This full schedule helped develop musical ability, confidence in appearing before people, and a sense of cooperation and teamwork.

Orchestra

The 21-piece orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Richard A. Becker, like the band, underwent a building process. Although the instrumentation was limited, especially in the string section, a well-rounded group performed commendably at many school functions such as Lemonville, Christmas Musical, and Graduation Exercises. Mr. Becker stated that there was a promising group of beginning strings in Junior High School who would soon be graduating to take their place in the larger orchestra which he hoped to have in the future.

Band

The 56-piece band, under the direction of Mr. Richard A. Becker, succeeded in getting a real start this year as a well-rounded musical organization. It was composed of both junior and senior high school members, a combination which presented a difficulty in rehearsals, so band members of both groups met for an evening rehearsal every Tuesday in addition to the three rehearsals a week each group held separately. The band sported attractive new uniforms this year, with white jackets, red trousers, red hats and gold appointments. A new French horn and a baritone horn were also purchased for the band. Besides playing at all games, pep assemblies etc., the band presented its first spring concert, an accomplishment which indicated that it was on its way toward being the kind of band which a school of this size should maintain.

The Ko-Hi-Nur

During the past year the Ko-Hi-Nur staffs endeavored to lead the students of C. H. S. as well as to bring them the news of events on the campus

Under the supervision of Mr. E. Ritter, instructor of journalism at C. H. S., the Ko-Hi-Nur was published each week.

As a side project, the enthusiastic students put out a twelve-page Anniversary Supplement to the local paper in order to bring attention to the school bond issues that were voted on the past year.

THE CORONAL STAFF

The Coronal Staff consisting of Kathleen Bishop, Editor; Jeanne Dupuis, Business Manager; Bernice Bradley, Art Editor; Jim Ragsdale, Sports Editor; and Nancy Coleman, Ardeth Maw, Esther Rieve, Helen Lomax, Lila Jean Housley, Joan Velthoen, Barbara Downs, Billy Zidbeck, reporters, hope they have given you a book to be remembered as one of the finest. They have tried to celebrate the 25th year that Corona Senior High School has been located at its present West 6th Street Campus by using the 25th Anniversary, the silver anniversary, as the theme of this book.

They hoped by means of generous use of pictures, snap shots, and brief stories—to bring you a true picture of Corona Senior High School Life with some contrasts to the Corona High twenty-five years ago.

The Coronal staff wishes to thank Mr. Ed Ritter for his patience and untiring assistance in the preparation of the material for the annual, to Mr. C. J. Slattery for all his fine work in taking the many pictures that had to be taken for this year's Coronal, and to Mr. Guy Genung for his helpful suggestions and cooperation in the printing of the 1948 Coronal.

Assembly Planning Committee

The Assembly Planning Committee was organized again for the purpose of planning and presenting assemblies to the student body. This was the second year this club was active at C. H. S. A wide variety of good entertainment was presented by the committee under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Hyatt. The only officers of the club were Co-chairmen Ray Lescault and Charles Parker.

ACTIVITIES

MORELL "MAC" MCGREGOR

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

"Let's give him another big hand." Corana Senior High School students felt like echoing the familiar words of their student body prexy as they looked back on the admirable leadership of "big, little Mac" McGregor. Mac always had a joke to pop at the students that really got them in the mood to listen to all the good assemblies that were presented at C.H.S. When presiding at an assembly Mac had an inimitable way of introducing people; his way of saying "Today"—and of then going on with what he had to say will not be forgotten.

Mac was really swell—about 5 feet 4 inches (anyway between 5 feet and 6 feet), brown hair (always a butch haircut), brown eyes, and that personality. What a guy!!! I bet you wouldn't even guess he was from Texas. Mac really is an all around fellow—he did very well scholastically and was a whiz at sports.

The classes after the class of '48 are surely going to have a hard time finding a student body president as efficient as Mac was this year.

The Student Council

The student council, under its capable president, Morell McGregor, was faced this year with many problems, some of which were more difficult to solve than others. However, the student body can now look with pride to the completion of payments on the football lights and bleachers. Another year has been concluded most successfully.

President Morell McGregor wishes to thank the following members of the student council for their help in making his term such a success: Robert Sanford, Vice-President; Helen Lomax, Secretary; Marion Lyon, Treasurer; Kathleen Bishop, Editor of Coronal; Jeanne Dupuis, Business Manager of Coronal; Mike Lugo, Fire Chief; and the class representatives, Bud Smith, senior; Mary Alice Hercer, junior; Barbara Bays, sophomore.

Student Council sponsors were Mr. Bynum and Mr. Froseth.

Lemonville

Two one-act plays, "Stoney's Brides" and "Murder by Morning", followed by a dance in the gymnasium accompanied by Judd Chew's orchestra from Redlands, high-lighted this year's traditional Lemonville.

Sponsored by the Junior Class to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet, Lemonville was a festive occasion with concessions, leis, balloons, hats, and confetti.

Miss Chopman and Jeanne Dupuis were advisor and general chairman, respectively.

Hi - Jinks

The annual Hi Jinks Ball was held this year on March 12 at the American Legion Hall. The theme was "Apple Blossom Time" and the hall was beautifully decorated with pink and white flowers.

At 9:00, the moment everyone had been waiting for, arrived. To the strains of "Apple Blossom Time" the procession started. Leading was little Gretchen Ritter, scattering flowers in the queen's path. Then came Dennis Taylor who carried the queen's crown. Ardeth Noble, the queen and also president of Girl's League, followed with a long flowing cape and a fan bouquet of camillias and sweet peas.

The court followed in couples: Kathleen Bishop, Emily Delgadillo, Charmayne Leeson, Marion Lyon, Carol Smith, and Margie Riley. When the procession reached the throne, the attendants ascended to the foot of the throne while Ardeth remained below for the reading of the presentation. Scharli Lyon, the vice president of Girl's League, acted as crowning officer. After the coronation, Queen Ardeth ascended to her throne to view the program prepared for her.

A musical program was presented by a group of Whittier College students.

The grand march led by Queen Ardeth and her escort followed the program. Then, dancing was continued until midnight.

A very large crowd attended Hi Jinks this year. It was reported by the members of Girl's League to be one of the nicest and one of the most successful ever had.

The Junior Class Play

"What a riot!" That's what everyone was saying after they'd seen that great presentation, "FOOTLOOSE" given by the Class of '49 under the direction of Miss Peterson.

It WAS a riot, too, with Jo Ann Roos and Myron Joseph as high school kids who got into every kind of trouble imaginable! Scharli Lyon was the older sister who tried to run things while her parents were away on a world cruise.

The whole thing, in three acts, was enough to confuse and delight any audience. It did, too!

The Cast:

Hope Early—Scharli Lyon
 Mary Early—Jo Ann Roos
 Bob Early—Myron Joseph
 Dick Early—John Shannon
 Delphie—Clydean Lawson
 Randy Cunningham—Bob Morrell
 Emily Early—Jeanne Dupuis
 Richard Early—Art White

The 25th Anniversary Ball

The Coronol Staff this year held a Formal Dance, December 19, which they called a Silver Anniversary Ball, celebrating the twenty-five years that the Corona Senior High School has been located on West 6th Street and honoring all Corona High School alumni. Under the theme Silver Star Dust, Mrs. Bachand's Orchestra played. During the intermission Gordon Hogan, an alumnus who is now going to Pomona College, played a few numbers on the piano after which Kathleen Bishop, Editor of the 1948 Coronol, greeted the crowd and invited them over to the refreshment table.

A cake with decorations symbolizing the 25th Anniversary was then featured at the refreshment table where Mrs. L. L. Andrews, who was a Board of Trustees member the first year the school existed at its present campus, cut the cake. Then it was served.

This dance was enjoyed by the community and by high school students and poetically marked a historic event important to our high school.

The Annual Football Banquet

The annual Football Banquet sponsored by the Corona Lions Club was a huge success this year. Sixty-five varsity and "B" team players and as many fathers attended the father-and-son banquet.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of "The Most Valuable Player Award" of the football season to Frank Nugent by Mr. John Ganahl, who made the presentation in behalf of the 20-30 Club. Frank showed himself so capable all season at left guard that his selection for the award surprised no one.

Chief speaker of the evening was Ben Agajanian, star place kicker of the Los Angeles Dons of the All American Pro Football League.

YELL LEADERS

Present at all athletic activities of C.H.S., both home and away, were Yell Leaders Nelda Nolan, Jane Karney, Idarene Bibles, and Bill Zidbeck. The girls—in their white skirts, white sweaters with "C's", and red Peter Pan blouses—and Bill—in white trousers and red sweater—led the student body in cheering our team to victory. Leading an excited student body isn't so easy as it sounds, and the yell leaders had to be on their toes and do a lot of planning. They also helped to promote friendship between schools by meeting lots of kids and exchanging ideas.

SONG LEADERS

Song leaders Lynne Hansen, Jody Roos, Jean Blair, and Gee Gee Jewell were also a familiar quartet at all games. Sporting red corduroy beanies and flashy red corduroy dresses with gold notes, they worked with the yell leaders and pep band to boost school spirit. They didn't have an easy time either. Sometimes we sang with our band, sometimes with the opponent's band, and sometimes with no band. Well—we sang, didn't we?

SILVER MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF '23

Class Yell:

Look! Look!
Who are we?
We're the Class of '23
We are big, we are strong
We're always right: we're never wrong.

ANCHORS AWEIGH

Hail to Corona Hi, banners unfold,
All proudly proclaim the crimson and the gold.
Rah—Rah—Rah.
On football field, or track,
in class, proclaim
Dear old Corona Hi, we'll shout your praise,
And tell of all your fame.
Just three short years to go,
then say adieu,
But we will not forget
Corona Hi,
Our love for you, you
Will grow through passing years and tho we part,
Dear old Corona Hi—you'll live forever,
Ever in our hearts.

ALMA MATER

To you Corona Hi the best of all,
We sing our love and loyalty,
And when from you we part,
You'll always be, deep in our memory.
In football, tennis, track and basketball,
We know you'll always stand the test.
And sa Corona Hi to you
we sing.

WOW! WOW! WOW!

(Hot Time in Old Town Tonight)
Wow! Wow! Wow! We have them large and small,
Wow! Wow! Wow! Just watch
us take the ball,
And we'll have this game,
Or we'll have no game at all,
There'll be a hot time in this old town tonight,
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Oh, our stars, Oh, how they hit that line.
Look! Look! Look! They are all working fine,
And we have this game,
Just ten yards at a time,
There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight.

CORONA HIGH SONG

(Tune—Stein Song)

Hail to dear Corona High,
Shout till the echoes ring,
Stand and pledge to her
once again,
Let every loyal son now sing.
Then sing to all her happy
hours,
Sing to our dear Alma Mater,
The high school of our hearts always.
To the past to the task,
To the future and hope that are calling us;
To the youth, to the fire,
To the life that is moving and calling us;
To the game, to the team,
To the victory and score that will soon be ours,
To the red, to the gold,
To the colors that wave
o'er us now.
Hail to dear Corona High,
Shout till the echoes ring.
Stand and pledge to her
once again,
Let every loyal son now
sing.
Then sing to all her happy hour,
Sing of her carefree days
Sing to our dear Alma Mater,
The high school of our hearts always.

Varsity Football

The Corona High School Panther footballers, after a successful 1947 season against tough competition in the Tri-County League, came forward to tie the Citrus gridders for second place in the league.

Trained by Coach Dan Bulkley, the Panthers got off to a winning start against their old rivals, the Colton Yellow-jackets, tramping them 20-0 in a practice game September 26, on the home gridiron. Wayland Nelson, Ray Lescault, and Dave Rawson scored the touchdowns and Celes Martinez kicked the two conversion points.

In their second victory, also a practice game, the Panthers overpowered the Anaheim Colonists on the La Palma Park gridiron at Anaheim, October 3, 12-0. The Panthers were handicapped in this encounter. The afternoon of the game, Wayland Nelson, Panther quarterback, and Pat Carlton, end, were injured in an automobile accident. Taking the vitally important quarterback position, David Holton handled the team like a veteran and his passes were perfect. In the second period Halfback Dan Blakeley ran 36 yards to pay dirt, dodging tacklers all the way. Fullback John Wyrick plunged through the line from the one-yard line for the final score. Celes Martinez kicked the conversion point.

In the Tri-County League Football Carnival held at Citrus, October 10 the Northern division (Citrus, Claremont and Bonita) whipped the South (Corona, Puente, and Chino) 33-12. As the Panthers also had a game scheduled against the Pomona Red Devils the following night, Coach Bulkley was forced to send in his second team against the Bonita Bearcats. Bonita won 7-6.

The following evening at Pomona the locals were administered their first defeat. Playing two games one right after the other didn't seem to be the best thing on the menu for Corona. The Pomona Red Devils just had a better team; that's all there was to it. They out-weighed us 26 pounds per man in the line and 30 pounds in the back field; but true to tradition, the Corona Panthers fought hard 'til the final gun.

October 17 on the home gridiron, the panthers opened league competition against Citrus, defeating them 20-6. Early in the contest, Halfback Dan Blakeley raced 70 yards down the left side line to score for Corona. Celes Martinez scored the second touchdown for the Panthers from the three-yard line. Fullback Bud Smith scored the final touchdown for Corona when he intercepted a Citrus pass and ran it 33 yards for the touchdown. Celes Martinez kicked both conversions.

The following week in their second league contest, the Panthers were defeated by the Bonita Bearcats at Bonita, who the previous year tied for the Tri-County League Championship with Corona. Luck wasn't with the Panthers in this game. Bonita was league champion this season.

In their third league game, the Panthers whipped Puente 29-0 at Puente on October 31. Fullback Bud Smith plunged through the line from the one-yard mark to open the scoring for Corona. In the second stanza, Celes Martinez ran 16 yards to pay dirt. Dan Blakeley scored the third touchdown for Corona in the first half. A flat pass from Quarterback Dave Holton to End Davie Rawson netted the Panthers their fourth touchdown. In the opening minutes of the final period, Celes Martinez launched a 30-yard field goal; the ball sailed end over end and squarely between the uprights.

In league game number four, on the home field, the Panthers played a scoreless game against the Chino Cowboys. In the encounter, Bud Smith sustained a broken ankle, which kept him from playing in the Claremont game. In the second period, it looked like a possible score for Chino, but the powerful Panther line drove them back.

In their final league tilt, November 14, with Claremont, the Panthers won 52-2. Scoring touchdowns for Corona were Dan Blakeley, Ray Lescault, Dave Rawson, Dave Holton, Harvey Simpson, and Frank Nugent. This was the final game for Corona. The Panthers had won three games, lost one, and tied one.

"B"

With a last-minute touchdown against Chino, the Corona High School "B" eleven won the Tri-County championship for last season, under the able supervision of Coach Wayne Taylor.

Corona had a very successful season this year, winning four games and losing none in league competition.

Corona opened the season against Colton in a practice tilt, shallacking the Colton eleven 42-0.

Bonita was the first Tri-County League victim of the mighty "B" football machine, losing 14-6 to the Corona Panthers in a very well-played game.

Corona had to go all the way in order to beat a fighting Citrus team 7-6 in their next league tilt. Corona was on the Citrus one yard-line another time, but failed to push the ball over.

Corona crushed the Puente eleven 49-0 in the next league game.

Corona met Chino in their last league game, with both teams being undefeated in league competition. At the end of the third quarter the score was 6-0 in favor of Chino, but with just three minutes to go, Corona pushed over a touchdown to win the Tri-County Football Championship, 7-6. The play that won this title was a 246 double reverse-forward, a very tricky play made up by Coach Taylor.

Spark plugs of the team throughout the season were Dick (Pud) Allen, Bob (Rabbit) Cleveland, and Harvey (Boxcar) Simpson, the latter two being co-captains this year.

Varsity Basketball

"C" Basketball

Varsity Basketball

The Corona Panthers, under the fine coaching of Wayne Taylor, won 12 out of 20 games this season, playing 10 league and 10 practice games.

In practice games, the Panthers won 8 out of 10 games, defeating Redlands twice, 20-19 and 36-28, and splitting two very close and well played games with the Colton five, 20-27 and 29-27. Elsinore proved hardly up to Corona's standard of playing, losing to Corona 49-16 and 72-10. Sherman also proved but a minor obstacle in Corona's victorious march, losing 39-26.

Corona licked Claremont 33-23 in the Chino tournament to advance to the second round, but met their master in Chaffey at the tune of a 66-32 score.

The Panther five won their first four games in league competition winning two from Puente, 50-39 and 64-27, and beating Claremont, 62-47 and 39-37, showing very good ball handling in both games.

Corona then went on to lose six straight games in league competition, losing to Chino 34-24 and 33-32, the latter games being the closest and most exciting games played by either team this season. Chino took a free shot in the last seconds of the game, sinking it after the gun had sounded, to win the game. The Panthers were thrashed by Citrus 56-47 and 33-28, and by the Bonita Bearcats 39-23 and 34-19 to end their season's schedule.

Corona racked up 771 points and 258 personal fouls in 20 games, winning 60 per cent of all its games.

Scoring 309 point, an average of 15 per game, Dave Rawson proved himself to be the power of the Corona five.

Rawson was followed by Guard Hank Moreno, with 117 points. Wayland Nelson and Pat Carlton bucketed 67 and 91, respectively. Celes Martinez took free goal honors, making 17 out of 29 attempts, for a 59 per cent average.

"B"

The Corona Bees had a fairly successful season this year, winning seven Tri-County games and losing only three. In practice games, the competition proved tougher; Corona won three but lost five.

With the expert coaching of Coach Dan Bulkley, the "B's" copped two games from Bonita, 30-15 and 40-19. The Corona Cagers proved too much for Puente to handle and won both games, 43-26 and 46-36. Claremont lost both games to the smooth-playing Corona five. 37-17 and 54-28. Corona lost twice to Chino, 30-27 and 30-24. Both games were very close and well-played by both teams. The Panthers split with the Citrus Cougars, 29-38 and 37-23.

In practice games, Corona cagers proved too much for Perris, winning 56-35; they split with Redlands 31-29 and 29-36. The first game showed fine ball handling on the part of both teams. Elsinore edged out the "Bees" 44-45, in one of the most exciting games of the "B" schedule. In the Chino tournament Corona really turned on the pressure and defeated Downey. 33-20, to advance to the second round, where they were overpowered by a very good Huntington five. The Corona team played its heart out, but the Colton five proved just too much and Corona lost both games, 26-25 and 23-13.

The "B" team massed 595 points during the season. Morell McGregor, though he played only 13 of 18 games, took individual scoring honors, scoring 136 points. He also had the best free goal average, sinking 26 out of 50 attempts for a 52 per cent average.

Other first string players were Angelo Lunetta, 89 points; Dick Allen, 86 points; Jack Kroonen, 46 points; and Harvey Simpson, 33 points.

Leading subs were Mike Lugo, 86 points; Morris Eaton, 31 points; Bob Allen, 24 points; and Jerry Carranza with 20 digits.

Other team members in order of scoring: Bob Cleveland, Nick Rodriguez, Harold Nickolson, Fred Montejano, Gene Lamb, and Robert Broyles.

"C"

This year for the first time since the war, Corona High School "C" class boys got together and organized a team. Under the able coaching of Mr. Davies, high school shop teacher, the "C" team won three of its seven games.

The Corona five lost the first four straight league games, losing to Bonita 24-15, to Chino 30-23, to Bonita 17-15, (in one of the most exciting games of the season) and to Chino 38-28.

Then the Corona boys turned the tables and defeated the league champs, Citrus, 22-18. The "C" boys played a very good game and showed fine handling of the ball.

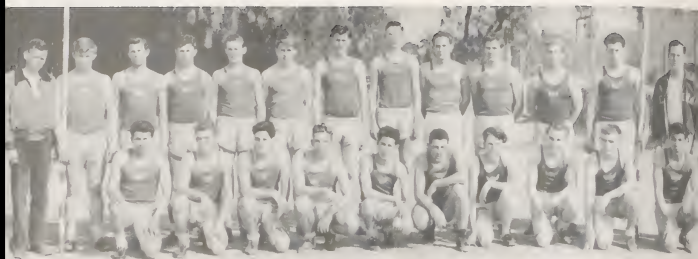

Next victim of the Corona five was Puente, to the tune of a 27-21.

In the final league game, the team won from Citrus by forfeit.

Jimmie Ragsdale was big gun of the Corona five, scoring 52 points in six league tilts, and making 9 baskets out of 16 free goal attempts for a 56¼ per cent average. Richard Ortega followed, scoring 40 points in six league games. Abel Martinez was second in free goal attempts, making 6 out of 11 for a 54 per cent average.

Other members of the team were Bill Robertson, Donnie Ledford, Joe Burke, Ronnie Agins, Eugene Michaels, Bob Russel, Joe Soto, Ray Nichols, and Robert Henson.

Varsity Track

"B" Track

"C" Track

Track

Corona Varsity and "B" men combined their talents to sweep to two wins in two of the biggest meets for small schools this year, winning the Brea Linda Relays and the Puente Invitational Meet.

Corona's Varsity and "B" men have not lost a meet to any other Tri-County school this year, while the "C's" won one and lost three to Tri-County competition.

Corona opened the season against the Colton tracksters. Corona's varsity and "B" men met their only defeats of the season, Varsity losing 48-56, and "B" men losing in a very close meet 47½-47⅔. The C's bowed to Colton tracksters 31½-44½.

Corona swept to a very impressive win in the Brea Linda Relays to carry home the first place trophy. Scores of the meet were: Corona, 22; Laguna Beach, 17; Downey, 13; Bonita, 11; Garden Grove, 9; Valencia, 8; Chino, 7; Orange, 5; Citrus, 4; and Claremont, 3.

Puente and Bell Gardens fell before the victorious Corona Varsity and "B" stars 90-31-8, and 62-38-17 in a triangular meet, while the Corona "C's" beat Bell Gardens 26-17 and dropped the decision to the Puente boys 42-26.

Citrus was the next victim of the victorious Varsity and "B" men 88-16 and 60½-33½. The Corona "C's" went down to defeat 25½-51½.

Bonita proved to be but a minor obstacle in Corona's way, losing to the Varsity 70-34 and to the "B" boys 67-28. Bonita proved too much for the Corona "C's", winning 54-23.

Corona then won the Bonita Invitational Meet over twelve other schools to take home two big trophies—one for winning the meet and one for the relay. Scores were: Corona 47, Colton 28, Bonita 20, Covina 18, Downey 15, Lancaster 10, Hemet 8, Chino 8, Perris 7, Claremont 6, Puente 5, Citrus 4, and Webb 4.

Corona swept to wins in all three classes over Chino, winning Varsity events 74-30; "B" events, 68½-26½; and at last the "C's" came through to win 42-33.

When the Coronal went to press it looked as if Corona would make a clean sweep of Varsity and "B" events. The "C's" chances also looked good in the approaching Tri-County Finals.

Two records were broken this year, the 120-yard high hurdles, and the 4-man 880-yard relay.

Bob Danieri ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 16.1 to break Murray's 16.3, which was set in 1938.

Nugent, Lescault, Martinez and Blakeley ran the 4-man 880-yard relay in 1.33.8 to break a 20-year-old record of 1.34.6 which had been set in 1927 by Bailey, Rude, Parker, and Wood.

The track record of the Corona trackmen shows excellent handling by Coach Buckley.

Varsity high point men of the season were Blakeley, Danieri, and Allen. Other individual stars were: Montejano, 880; Lescault, 440; Rawson, 440 and high jump; Shepard, pole vault; and Contreras, mile.

"B" high men were Wroot, Cleveland, and Escobar. Other high point-getters were Clinton, high jump; Caranza, high jump; Uribe, shot put; Simpson, 100 yard dash; Underhill, 220; and Broyles, broad jump.

"C" high point men were Robertson, Ragsdale, and Agins. Other point-getters were Ortega, shot put; Clinton, 660; Blackman, 100; Hacker, 180; and Russell, pole vault.

Varsity and Jr. Varsity Baseball

Baseball

Corona men of the diamond have won five games while losing four this year for a .556 average.

The Corona nine bowed to the Orange nine 2-1 and 2-0 in two close and well played games to open the season. Nelson pitched two-hit ball in the first game, but five errors gave the game to the Orange nine.

The Corona junior varsity (second string) split with the Colton junior varsity 4-6 and 16-1. In its second game, winning 16-1, the Corona junior varsity showed its batting prowess.

Corona walloped Colton 10-2 and 5-1 to take two well played games by the Corona nine. Nelson pitched a one-hitter in the second game to win his second game of the season.

Corona was walloped by Citrus 15-6 in the first league game. Hemmel and Topez combined their pitching talents to pitch a four-hit game for Citrus.

McIntyre and Flores combined their pitching talents to handcuff the Corona nine with a three-hit shutout 16-0 in Corona's next league contest.

Carlos Uribe knocked out four hits in five times at bat to lead the Panthers to a 9-2 victory over Chino in their third league contest. Corona showed fine fielding and good batting eyes, making 14 hits.

Celes Martinez walked, stole second, took third on a passed ball, and scored on an outfield error to give the Panthers their second league win, 8-7, over Chino. Coach Keers' team showed a much improved game in this contest.

Other games could not be included because of the Coronal deadline for sports material.

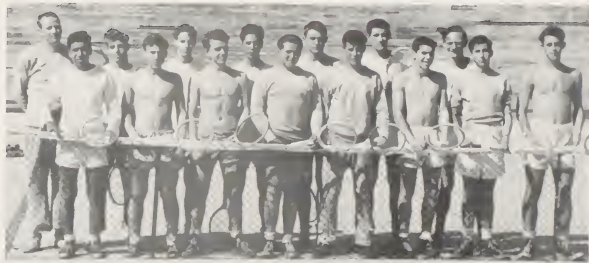

Said Coach Bob Keers of C. H. S. baseball players: "Most of the fellows were young and inexperienced, but they were all willing to learn and their spirit was fine.

"Several ineligibilities and injuries have handicaped us thus far; but we are improving with every game and expect to be a soft touch for no one. We are giving as much attention as possible to the sophomores and juniors and plan on being even tougher next year. Only members of the squad who will graduate this year are W. Nelson, J. Ramirez, D. Rawson, Dick Allen, and C. Martinez. Those returning next year are the Uribe brothers, A. Lunetta, M. Lugo, C. Peterson, M. Ornelis, R. Ortega, M. Eaton, L. Cullins, B. Perez, I. Serrato, and J. B. Graham."

Coach Bob Keers was here for his first year, and coached the Corona nine into a well balanced team, even though being ill during the season.

Boys' Tennis

Girls' Tennis

Boys' Tennis Team

C. H. S.'s boys' tennis team opened the season with a practice game here with Garden Grove, April 5, and a return match there the following week. The boys lost both matches due to inexperience and lack of time, the only winners being last year's return lettermen, David Holton, Paul Dolan, and Robert Sanford. However, Coach Taylor said, "The boys seem to be shaping up well in practice, and may surprise the other schools at the end of the season."

The schedule for the year was:

Colton	April 29
Citrus	May 6
Bonita	May 13
Chino	May 20
Claremont	May 27

Girls' Tennis Team

The tennis club under the direction of Mrs. Swanson started the year with a ladder tournament. This was to establish the girls' ranks according to ability, and to determine their position on the team.

Mrs. Swanson's hopes soared high for a very successful season, but the first match with Citrus proved disappointing as the C. H. S. girls were defeated by a score of 8-1 with 3rd singles, Arlene Wheeler, winning Corona's only match.

The following week the local girls fared somewhat better but still went down to defeat with Puente defeating them 5-3. The three points were scored by Bernice Bradley, 1st singles; Ardeth Noble, 2nd singles; and Arlene Wheeler, 3rd singles.

Due to a mix-up in schedule these matches were played over. The schools included in the league were Citrus, Puente, Bonita, Chino, and Claremont.

Positions held by the girls were Bernice Bradley, 1st singles; Ardeth Noble, 2nd singles; Arlene Wheeler, 3rd singles; Cush McCord, 4th singles; and Alice Wingo, 5th singles. Kathleen Bishop and Jeanne Dupuis teamed together for 1st doubles, with Carol Smith and Charolette Warren playing 2nd doubles.

Other members of the tennis team were Barbara Bays, Lois Dillon, and Mary Hecrer.

Dear Diary:

Gee, it was terrible to have to go back to school today after such a wonderful vacation, although it was swell to see all the kids again. Boy, never saw such a mob in all my life! The halls were just jammed from side to side. Corona High surely has grown!

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1947

That old guy came to take our student body pictures to day. Here I got all fixed up to take a really glamorous picture, and what did he say? "Put your toes on the line" Bingo! I was gone!

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1947

At last, the first football game of the year out under our new lights. Boy, did we skunk Colton!

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1947

Mr. Frazier assigned auditorium seats today, and we seniors got to sit down in front. There I sat between those two monsters feeling as low as my shoeleaves, and what did I find behind me but that cute new girl gloating over two gorgeous hunks of man sitting on either side of her... sigh! What have I done to deserve this?

MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1947

Tonight we had the first in a series of forums. Our history teacher encouraged us to go, but did we see him there? What do you think? Naturally I wanted to go? I finally talked Dad into letting me use the ugly green, but then Mother decided to ride up with me, so I went to the forum instead.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1947

The Volga Troubadours were here for our first National Assembly. They do nice work!

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1947

Wasn't that football carnival at Citrus neat? Meathead and I had a seat on the 50-yard line. He broke his little finger so he wasn't playing.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1947

C. H. S. got to play Pomona this year. Not bad, huh?

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1947

Had a great game with Citrus here.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1947

We had personality tests today, and of all the silly questions! "Do your friends have confidence in you?" "Are your social contacts adequate?" "Do you have any... pardon me, I mean MANY friends?" Now how should I know!

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1947

That was really a good assembly presented by Charles Lampkin, who played the piano and sang.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1947

Saw a fine picture entitled "God of Creation". This afternoon we played our rival, Bonita. Good game!

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1947

I heard that the Hi-Y initiation at the Panther's Den was really something! Knowing them, that's possible!

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1947

What do you know. Another football game, only with Puente this time. And that wasn't all... tonight we had a Halloween dole, to keep everyone out of mischief. Such a deal.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1947

We had a terrific time at the girls' basket ball playday at Citrus. Got to meet a lot of our friends from other schools.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1947

The last day of the first quarter... one down and three to go! Can't wait 'till I get my report card. Oh yeah! Finished the quarter right with a scoreless tie with China.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1947

It says here between the lines that we had an Armistice Assembly. Imagine that!

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1947

Goodie, goodie, gumdrops, no school today! Armistice day!

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1947

Took our vocational interests tests today. "Which would you rather be, a garbage collector, dog catcher, or grave digger?" Can't see as it makes much difference! Wow, what a senior assembly! Everything from "Smiley Sisters" to burlesque. "Nuff said... Amen!"

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1947

Football game with Claremont here... Sadie Hawkins dance afterwards, sponsored by Girl's League... this wasn't any ordinary dance, because there was a wedding performed. The bride was the only one who got to kiss the groom, and did she ever!

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1947

And you want me to take senior achievement test? Oh, you silly boy!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1947

Two hilarious, side-splitting, riotous, plays at Lemonville tonight. They were even sorta funny! Good old dance afterwards over at the gym... a famous fortune teller was there, too.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1947

Reverend Williams spoke at our Thanksgiving assembly today.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1947

Had to choose our old hen 'till the fat was all worn off... off the chicken that is.

That swell turkey dinner with all the trimmings was really worth it though.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1947

Gee, that surely was a good assembly put on by Happy Holly, who impersonated everyone from a... yes he did!

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1947

Boy, that annual stat really worked hard to put on that assembly... plug! Clem finally convinced Maw and Paw how valuable an annual is.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1947

Yonkers played their first basketball game of the season with Elsinore here.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1947

Got to serve at the annual football banquet tonight. Boy, I saw to it that I got the right table... need I say more?

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1947

Rip-roaring game with Bonita here... you should have seen those boys make baskets! Which boys?

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1947

You would have thought those guys were big babies sitting there in those baby pens with diapers and banners on. That letterman's initiation really was a panic.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1947

The Coronal staff had its 25th Anniversary Ball tonight. Gertie had the cutest dance was really swell. Well, what do you think she'd be doing... carrying it? No kidding, the

MONDAY, JANUARY 5, 1948

How will I ever get down to work again after that nifty vacation? It was heavenly not to have homework for a whole two weeks. What did I do during vacation? Not 'till you tell me... I ask you first!

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1948

Those old hammy Juniors gave their assembly today! crumb! That's all right! Played China here tonight... I mean the boys did.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1948

Oh, Oh, baby, those hula dancers in the marionette show were really ok. And did you see that cowboy puppet? Smacking on the campus! How does he rate?

Mon. September 10, 1947

Jan. 31, 1948

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1948

Hate to say it, but those sophomores put on a really neat assembly. No mas (running out of space—skip it.) Almost left out this game with Claremont.

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 1948

Mrs. Sellstrom talked to the seniors today . . . Gosh, what do I say now? Anyway she's a marriage counselor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1948

The fellows ended the first semester by playing an exciting game at Citrus.

Two quarters down and two to go.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1948

Another basketball game, so soon. Wish we'd hurry up and get through with these games. They take up too much space. This one was Bonita.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1948

Boy oh boy, the Letterman's dance at the Legion hall was really a gala affair.

You know those lettermen!

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1948

No, no, not on other basketball game! Who's the lucky school that gets to play us this time? Chino, no less.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1948

The band marched in their new uniforms . . . I mean, the band members, in their new uniforms, marched in the parade at Indio. Hey, band boys, need some more girls!

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1948

Chino presented a musical exchange assembly today. That gal who played the sax was all right.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1948

More of same, only Claremont.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1948

Did you ever see a rabbit come out of a hat? Hocus, pocus, dominicus . . . That's the part I missed in that magic assembly!

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1948

Guess some old guy had a birthday so we got out of school . . . Oh, it was George Washington!

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1948

The Glee Club really sounded good at the assembly today.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1948

Didn't understand every word in that language assembly . . . just couldn't hear very well!

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1948

That poor old faculty didn't have a chance when the panthers ran all over them. Really a good game though. Colton was over for a track meet today . . . I can't figure out why that one guy kept running around the track after all the others had stopped.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1948

The Brea Linda Relays were held today, but I didn't go because I didn't have a way.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1948

Everyone ditched school today to see the Freedom Train . . . to see the Freedom train is. Well, I saw the outside anyway!

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1948

First baseball game of the season at Orange. Boy, was it juicy. Jake, son!

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1948

That apple blossom theme for Hi Jinx was really cute, The Queen and her Court looked super.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1948

The GAA had a picnic at Glen Ivy today, and we got our awards.

MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1948

See, got up in the middle of the night this morning. The case of the lost hour!

Hour of sleep, that is.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1948

That Junior play really was a riot! Never saw a family get in such a pickle . . . Had a track meet with Citrus here, too.

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1948

Back to the same old grind after a swell vacation. Gosh, I'm sleepy. Had a horrible time getting up so early.

THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1948

Never saw the Statue of Liberty before, but I didn't know it could move around like that! That Ferris assembly was different anyway!

TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1948

Mr. Parkinson talked to us about India today, and he brought along two Indian girls. Looked just like two girls in our school.

THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1948

That swing band from Sherman was really hot! That play was pretty good, but it scored me half out of my boots.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1948

Had a nite track meet at Bonita . . . there was a whole mess of schools there.

We won, too.

MONDAY, APRIL 12, 1948

T'B or not T'B, that what we'll find out when we hear the results of our TB X-rays.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1948

Tortillas! Serapes! The Pan American Assembly was sure neat. We ought to do that more often.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1948

Mida, new look . . . the lady from Bullocks showed us some darling clothes. Sure wish I could get some of them.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1948

I'd love to go to Hawaii after seeing that beautiful film. Lots of the seniors were over to Riverside College today for senior day. Vocal music festival at Citrus, too. What a day!

TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1948

Some of the Glee Club kids went to the Naval hospital today . . . lucky guys.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1948

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1948

Bet you never saw anyone play an organ and a piano at the same time . . . but Clyde Bryant did, even though he is blind. Surely admired his courage.

MONDAY, APRIL 26, 1948

Today was the beginning of Public Schools Week . . . gotta behave this week 'cause my mama's coming!

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1948

At last . . . Ditch Day!! Boy am I sunburned!

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1948

The juniors really worked hard to give us that swell Prom. Got my first orchid tonight!

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1948

Class Day was a riot! Some of the things people didn't will! And that prophecy was just one big joke.

FRIDAY, MAY 28

More of same, only formal. Imagine me with an award . . . almost dropped dead when they called my name.

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1948

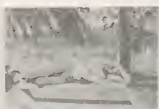

The great day has arrived at last. Gee, I'm sad now that it's over with. I won't see a lot of the kids again.

Hey Hey! - Yo Yo's - New Look - Peroxides - - It Shouldn't Happen Even to a Sophomore

Each school year is different—unique in its personalities, fads, activities, and pranks. And because each school year is different in so many ways, each one becomes like an individual; a friend through thick and thin. There are bad years and good years. We won't be so presumptuous as to say that 1947-48 has been a terrific year—or, for that matter, that it has been a horrible year, because it becomes an entirely different kind of a year for each one of us. But what would we say has made this year what it has been? (We're speaking entirely from a scholastic point of view of course . . . ah hmmm.) Well . . .

Part of it came from the sayings which circulated on the campus throughout the year. Let's see, around the first month or two there was a highly intelligent exclamation used by almost everybody. It was, "Hey, Hey!!!" followed by any word which seemed appropriate, or at times followed by absolutely nothing at all. It seemed to speak for itself whenever uttered. And then later in the year, when "Hey, Hey!!" had passed from the scene and was obsolete there arose another exclamation which was used to mean almost anything, anytime, anywhere. "Uh oh, baby" was this masterpiece and was more effective if it was shouted in a tone of voice that gave the impression that the person was either suffering from laryngitis or was about to pass out. But it was wonderful and it was really surprising how useful it could be.

Then, of course, there are the fads which add to the personality of each and every school year. This year we almost outdid ourselves when it came to fads. They ranged everywhere from long skirts to yo-yo's.

Yes, what with the New Look making its debut this year, and all the girls eager to be right in style every minute there was quite a variety in dress. Aside from the fact that one had to be virtually a millionaire to keep up with the style, it was lovely. Scarfs have been quite the rage this year too, and have really added quite a bit of color to the campus. But none of this mad rush to be up to the minute in clothes bothered our local heroes in the least. They just kept right on donning the same old pair of levis or cords every morning and got that amazed "Girls!" look in their eyes when a gal thinking she looked very chic swished by in her Ballarina skirt.

Came the spring. And with it came the yo-yo craze, sidelined by a few tops. They even found their way into classrooms, and one never felt completely safe from those zooming things that could smack you neatly on the back of the head and disappear so rapidly you never knew whom to accuse. But this disease, luckily, seemed to be contagious largely to boys. Then it was the girls' turn to get that confused "Boys!" look in their eyes.

"Save the best for the last", they say. And so we did. Peroxide. Words cannot describe its effect. It always happens. A brave soul peroxides his hair and the word passes quickly, "Are you going to . . . ?" Soon everyone does. In fact this year you were classed as nothing less than a freak if you didn't. Some of the bleach jobs were really successful, tho', and added quite a bit to appearances that theretofore had needed something to set them apart. Believe us it did. But we always say, "It's their hair".

Another of those "Everybody's-doing it" routines this year seemed to be "Going Steady". Almost everybody did at one time or another. The halls became practically a Lover's Lane, what with the "Steadies" parading from class to class holding hands. It was nice, though, wasn't it? Sort of inspired some of us to think that maybe all wasn't in vain. Some day we, too, might hold hands.

The pranks this year rather ran away with themselves it seems. About all we can say to the adventurous soul who rode the bike down the hall, and the naughty boys who put dead things into people's lockers (no doubt mistaking them for miniature morgues) is, "Aren't you ashamed?"

It's been quite a year. And like all the others, it will become an annual report and forgotten by many people. But there are those of us who will remember it. These things belong to the past now, but it's usually appropriate to shed a tear (we can see some of the firecracker fiends shedding a few tears) and go on to the next year. So without further ado we'll add our good-bye to the rest. "Uh oh, baby, see ya around!"
